DR. SCHENCK'S
Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills.

These medicines have undoubtedly performed more cures of Consumption than any other remedy known to the American public. They are compounded of vegetable ingredients, and contain nothing which can be injurious to the human constitution.

Other remedies advertised as cures for Consumption, probably contain opium, which is a somewhat dangerous drug in all cases, and if taken freely by consumptive patients, it must do great injury; for its tendency is to confine the morbid matter in the system, which of course, must make a cure impossible.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is warranted not to contain a particle of opium: It is composed of powerful but harmless herbs, which act on the lungs, liver, stomach and blood, and thus correct all morbid secretions, and expel all the diseased matter from the body. These are the only means by which Consumption can be cured, and as Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills are the only medicines which operate in this way, it is obvious they are the only genuine cure for Pulmonary Consumption. Each bottle of this invaluable medicine is accompanied by full directions.

Dr. Schenck is professionally at his principal office, corner Sixth and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, every Monday, and at the Quincy House, Boston, on the following Wednesdays, June 10th and 24th, July 8th and 22d, and August 5th and 19th. je6-eod

Newport Daily News.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1874.

THE READER.

A person deeply read in books
Was Xerxes Apemantus Crooks.
To read and read
Was quite a greed
With Xerxes Apemantus Crooks.

It was not History he read;
He did not care for that, he said
'Twas partly squibs,
And partly fibs,—
He did not care for that, he said.

Astronomy was not his line;
The stars were competent to shine,
He said, without
His aid no doubt:—
He was content to let them shine!

He sought not scientific lore;
He frankly said it was a bore.
Your science might
Be all quite right,
But still he thought it was a bore.

He did not study works on Art;
It didn't suit his apple-cart,—
He used to say
In his quaint way,
It didn't suit his apple-cart.

You may be fancing, perchance,
He was a reader of romance.
No! not a bit:
That wasn't it—
He was no student of romance.

And now I think I hear you say—
"Then what the dickens was it, pray?"
Your patience flown,
I hear you moan—
"Then what the dickens was it, pray?"

Well, Xerxes Apemantus Crooks
Read all the books composed by cooks.
He loved receipts
For roasts and sweets,
Did Xerxes Apemantus Crooks.

He'd read of partridge stuffed with leeks
Until the tears ran down his cheeks,
And when he read
Of collared head,
He very often wept for weeks.

Devoted to his cookery books
Was Xerxes Apemantus Crooks;
By day and night
'Twas his delight
To read those moving cookery books.
—[Fun.

THEN AND NOW.—Fortune's changes are well illustrated in a town in the western part of Massachusetts. A few years since a house, not noticeable for its excellence and surroundings, situated in a retired street there, was the abode of a man who endeavored to eke out a sustenance in boot-making. The world seemed to use him hard. He never appeared to have a sufficiency of food or money. How he lived was a source of wonderment to his neighbors. Today the same gentleman drives his span of bays, owns a nice and pleasantly located residence, and has all he can do in the practice of his profession, viz.: that of a clairvoyant doctor. His house is full of patients, and has become a medical institute of no mere local repute. The number of remarkable cures is many, and the tide of prosperity seems to favor him. Fortune sometimes recoils. Here is an instance: A young lady who used to grace the fashionable parlors of the place and preside at a $700 piano with becoming dignity, now modestly waits on the table at one of the large hotels; and occasionally surprises the guests with a remarkable performance on the piano when music is wanted for a hop. The late money corner explains the secret.

KEEPING FIRKIN BUTTER.—This is done by excluding the air by the simple process of keeping the package covered with brine made of pure salt, strong enough to float an egg. When sold, and as soon as it is to be delivered, the brine is drained off entirely by reversing the package and leaving it bottom up for twelve or twenty four hours. It is then headed up, and goes to market without brine. The consumer is interested in getting possession of his supply as soon after it leaves the dairy cellar as possible. He should first take out the head, driving the hoops back to their place, and then make a brine with pure water and Ashton salt, and cover the butter with it, and keep it covered until the last pound is used. The butter kept just covered is easily cut of the size required for use, and if then held under the hydrant or pitcher, and water poured over it freely, it will be fit for the table, and the last pound will be as good as the first. No fear need be entertained that the brine will impart its taste to the butter. The office it performs is to prevent the air from contact with the butter. The writer knows that firkin butter has been kept a year by this simple and inexpensive process as sweet and with all the flavor it possessed the day it was made and packed.

THE HARTFORD
ACCIDENT
Insurance Company.
Cash Capital, $200,000.
R. D. HUBBARD, Pres. GEO. B. LESTER, Sec.

Insures against all forms of bodily injury induced by accidental means: such as dislocations, fractures, broken bones, ruptured tendons, bruises, cuts, stabs, gunshot wounds, crushing or mangling, burns and scalds, bites of mad dogs or serpents, unprovoked assaults by robbers or murderers, stroke of lightning or drowning &c.

The records of the years are filled with such accidents, and no doubt will be, so long as human carelessness exists. We are beset with them, from the cradle to the grave, and there is scarcely an individual who cannot refer, within the sphere of his own family or acquaintance, to some accident in which the indemnity offered by this company would have been a blessing worth much more than its cost.

Policies issued for long or short terms providing for weekly payments, in case of disability, and for the payment of the whole sum, in case of death.

The only company in the country that devotes itself wholly to accident insurance. A yearly policy covers accidents while travelling, while about one's business, while in the street, at home or abroad. The premium on each $1,000 is so small that every man is able to secure a policy without the slightest embarrassment. For full and complete particulars inquire of L. D. DAVIS, agent for Newport and vicinity.

THE DAY.

Tomorrow the Massachusetts Republican convention meets in Worcester. Lt. Gov. Talbot probably has a majority of the delegates, but his opponents think they can "anti" up a good many against him.

It is proposed to have a convention of Democratic governors, and possibly the Republican governors also, to discuss the question of the conflict between state and federal jurisdiction. We don't hear of any conflict between state and federal jurisdiction in Virginia or New York or any where else where the state maintains peace within its borders.

The Republic was born yesterday,—we mean the New York newspaper. It is no acorn affair from which a tall oak may be expected but, like Minerva, it springs into being mature and full armed. It is a quarto paper about the size of the World. It derives its intelligence from the American Press Association, the able rival of the Associated Press, and special correspondents, with which it appears to be well provided. The editorials indicate the information and skill that might be expected from such experienced journalists as are known to be connected with the paper. The Republic is decidedly Republican in its polititics but says nothing in the first number about the third term.

The incursions of Mexican bandits across the Rio Grande have compelled the state of Texas to put a company of mounted minute men in the vicinity of the border and Gov. Coke instructed them to disregard the national boundary when in actual pursuit of the robbers. Attorney General Williams addressed a letter to the governor calling his attention to the violation of international law authorized in this order and the governor's answer has been published. He begins by showing the ease with which the boundary may at almost any time be passed and then sets forth that the United States forces are utterly inadequate to protect the frontier; that the people of Texas have lost millions of dollars by those incursions, that there is every reason to believe that the Mexican authorities wink at these incursions; that the bandits can not be checked as long as the west bank of the river affords them a refuge and that Texas is simply doing for herself what the national government ought to do for her. He doesn't believe that international law requires Texas to surrender the right of self defence, or that Mexico can insist upon immunity from armed intrusion unless she makes some effort to stop the raiding which is constantly going on. Coke says he is willing to revoke his order if the general government insists, but it would be a great injustice to Texas.

THE SEVENTH REGIMENT.

Mr. Sidney Dean, who doesn't believe that the militia system has any value as a military school will be interested in a historical sketch of the Seventh regiment, N. G. S. N. Y., in the New York Times. From its roll of honor we learn that this organization has furnished the federal service with six major generals, twenty six brigadier generals, thirty colonels, fifty six lieutenant colonels, sixty three majors, two hundred captains and one hundred and sixty eight lieutenants, a total of five hundred and forty nine commissioned officers. From the Times article we take the following:—

Never was the mettle of any volunteer military organization put to a more thorough test than was the Seventh when it was summoned to the protection of the federal capitol at the outbreak of the rebellion. An active season of recruiting had swelled the regiment to the number of nearly a thousand members. The call found them fully uniformed and equipped with their own tents and camp utensils. The question at that time was, would the regiment that always marched so proudly when on Broadway be equal to the emergency? As one man they answered the nation's cry of distress. The personal sacrifices that were made by the members of the regiment were known only to themselves. Long established business connections were immediately severed, never to be united. A thousand men led the van without a day's preparation, and in six days after their departure they entered the federal capitol, and there remained for several weeks. No man in Washington watched more anxiously for their coming than did Abraham Lincoln. To an officer who once commanded an escort attending him to and from the Soldier's Home he said: "Never did a shipwrecked mariner long more anxiously for the sight of land than did I for the sight of that solid regiment." Gen. Scott saw that scores of commissions were arriving daily from the loyal governors for members of the Seventh, and he said: "They are a regiment of officers." As soon as a sufficient number of regiments had arrived to protect the capital the Seventh was sent home, and after their return that same body of men never again paraded as a regiment. There was not a regiment that left New York that did not contain more or less who had served with the Seventh. The organization was not crippled, notwithstanding over 600 of the 1,000 that marched down Broadway on the 19 of April, 1861, had now left its ranks. The regiment was soon recruited to the former standard, and before Winter they were again ready for any call. In the mean time the blood of the Seventh had crimsoned nearly every battle-field in Virginia.

The Vienna New Free Press reports that Denmark has sent a note to Berlin with reference to the expulsion of Danes from Schleswig. The note cites the various treaties by virtue of which Danish subjects in Prussia are to enjoy all privileges accorded the most favored nations, and seeks to show that they are liable to expulsion only for open violation of the laws.

The fifth Cincinnati exposition closed Saturday night after twenty-eight days exhibition, 554,000 persons having visited it. The receipts were $69,000 exclusive of receipts from the sales of privileges, which amounted to several thousand more. The commissioners passed a resolution to hold the exposition again next year.

The railroad commissioners of the Northern states, who have been in session at Madison, Wis., adjourned on Saturday, after adopting a form for reports, so that the railroad statistics of Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin can be published and collated in a uniform series of tables. The next meeting will be held at Springfield on the 9th of December next.

There was a shocking murder in the northwestern part of Chicago Saturday night. John Despiclere, a Belgian, engaged in peddling on the streets, quarreled with Joseph Vanacker, a fellow countryman also a peddler, when the latter drew a butcher knife and stabbed Despiclere in the leg, severing an artery and causing his death in a few minutes. The murderer was arrested.

A mass meeting of 10,000 black and white voters was held at Charleston Thursday night, the object being to demand of Governor Moses the removal of the present board of election commissioners who have avowed their intention of counting in the Chamberlin bond ring at the coming election. Resolutions were adopted appointing a committee of seven to wait on Governor Moses with the petition and if the petition fails, an appeal to the people will then be made. Moses has sold out the appointment of commissioner to the Chamberlin ring, and the people are determined to resist.

Charles H. Mealey of Halifax has issued a challenge to row any man in America, excluding George Brown and Morris, a three or five-mile race for $1,000 in gold, allowing $150 for expenses; to row in St. John, Springfield or on Charles River, Boston, inside of twenty days or in May or June next. Mr. Mealey is well known in the provinces as a skilled and powerful oarsman. He has defeated George Brown twice, making a record in the three-mile race of 18:33 and in the five mile race of 22:37. He is also known among Boston men, having won three prizes on Charles River.

The area of the German empire is only 212,000 square miles, or scarcely four times that of Illinois, and on this small space dwell over 42,000,000 people, which exceeds the present population of the United States, scattered over twelve times that extent of territory, and Germany produces enough bread-stuffs and meats for the support of her population, and raises a sufficient quantity of beets from which to manufacture nearly all the sugar and molasses consumed by her inhabitants, whereas the United States, with their great variety of climate and soil, expend $100,000,000 annually in the purchase of those commodities from tropical countries. Germany grows most of the tobacco consumed by her people, and they are inveterate smokers.

There was a terrible affray Saturday night at Wallers Defeat, or Lower Justice, Hoisting works Nev. Two men were instantly killed, two have died since, and a fifth will not live over the night. There has been trouble among the trustees of the Justice Mining Company. Two parties are fighting for control of the company. One side is represented by Mr. Mincar, president of the company, who appointed N. Kellogg as superintendent in place of Fred Smith, the present superintendent. Trouble has been anticipated for two days. Saturday evening about seven o'clock, a party of men headed by Kellogg, the newly-appointed superintendent, went to the Wallers Defeat works. When near the works they were warned off. Instead of going they made a rush for the entrance, when shooting commenced on both sides. The following are the names of the killed: W. Kellogg and M. Rauerilly. J. Brown was mortally wounded. The men killed are represented as most desperate characters. The affair caused considerable excitement in the vicinity of Gold Hill. Shiple, one of the wounded men, died during the night.

THE AURORA ON SATURDAY EVENING.

A brilliant aurora gave to the sky on Saturday evening the beauty of a Summer morning's dawn. The fantastic light extended from the northeast across the north, and stretched its wavy zone far to the northwest. The color was a kind of fleecy white, though tints of blue, green and delicate rose mingled with and irradiated the prevailing tone. The heavens were ablaze with light. There were belts arching the skies, myriad banners unfurled in all directions, radiant bands leaping toward the zenith, and the forms and figures were changing like clouds driven by the wind.

The firmament quivered and glowed with the glory of the auroral light; it seemed as if a thousand comets had lost their heads and the bewildered tails were rushing headlessly over celestial domains in search of the missing members of their erratic systems. We surely saw the tail of Coggia's comet just as it looked on its last appearance, flying with trackless speed over the deep azure background, and vanishing in the immensity of space even while we looked upon it.

Wonderful were the changes that occurred on the starry arena, and majestic the scale on which the weird scenic effects succeeded each other with awe-inspiring rapidity. Now the brilliant coruscations rose towards the zenith, now a glowing arch spanned the heavens, and now starry points of fire leaped over the vast course, while pyramids, cones, spiral bands, tongues and forks of flame changed and interchanged with indescribable velocity and weird variety.

At ten o'clock, when we made our last observation, the northeastern sky presented a charming picture. Cassiopea's chair was enshrouded in silvery light, Capella gleamed red and lurid through the mysterious fire, and the Pleiades shed their "mild influence" through waves and forks of shifting flame, while a gentle light like that of the rising moon threw a veil of enchantment over the scene.

If the aurora is only the responsive flash of a solar storm, what a magnificent commotion must have been going on at that time in the great luminary more than 90,000,000 of miles away, and what an almost omnipotent material force is that which makes its influence felt in the twinkling of an eye from the sun to the most remote planet in the system! If with Professor Tyndall and some of his fellow scientists, we do not discern in matter "the promise and potency of every form and quality of life," we cannot fail, in presence of such an illustration as was given on Saturday evening, to look with reverent awe and wonder on an exhibition of one of the mighty forces which plays so important a part in the economy of the worlds of space.—[Providence Journal.

Last evening a boarder at John Alderson's was in a rather muddled condition and was escorted to his room by a friend. No sooner had the stranger arrived up stairs than he was seized by the inmates who thought they had caught a robber and a policeman was called. Officer Ackers took the man to the Station House.

AN ARMY AND NAVY WEDDING.—At two o'clock this afternoon the Rev. Dr. I. P. White solemnized at Trinity church the marriage of Lieut. E. R. Hills, adjutant Fifth U. Barnett, Fifth artillery, acted as groomsman, and Miss Julia Fleming, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid. The ushers were Lieuts. Porter, Brown, Logan, Colby and Hanford, United States navy. The church was decorated for the occasion and was filled with a large number of spectators. The landing stage at the Torpedo Station and U. S. S. Intrepid were gaily trimmed with flags. After the ceremony a reception was held at the commandant's residence at the station during which the band of the Fifth artillery furnished music.

A DENIAL.

To the Editor of the News.

I beg leave to contradict a statement in your columns of yesterday stating that I was a participant in the row on Hammett's wharf on Sunday evening. I was almost through feeding the horses when I heard some noise and outside the barn door saw three soldiers. They had knocked a man down. I remonstrated with the soldiers and told them to desist and said that such conduct was not tolerated on the premises whereupon I was struck with a brickbat. I seized the first one and clung to him until I gave him in charge to the mayor and city marshal. For this I am censured in the public press and my character assailed in divers ways by unprincipled officials who are only too anxious to have my name dragged before the public. I also deny most emphatically that I was intoxicated or that I had used any intoxicating liquors as can be proved by many respectable citizens who saw me on that evening.

STATE MISCELLANY.

One of the largest boot and shoe manufactories in Rhode Island is that of A. Chaplin, of Pawtucket. He gives constant employment to eighty hands, making a specialty of ladies' and misses' fine boots, which, for elegance of finish, durability and low price combined, are not surpassed in the country. His factory is filled with new and improved machinery, which is driven by a never failing water power. Mr. Chaplin has been engaged in the business forty years, of which time he has been established in Pawtucket eight years.—[Boston Commercial Bulletin.

Central Falls has a sensation—a black ghost, seven feet in height.

A small wooden building, erected in the Spring of 1873, by David M. Hunt, on the Hummocks (so called), just below Hamilton Village, in North Kingstown (for a saloon, and the accommodation of shore parties, for bakes, &c.), was totally destroyed by fire Friday morning about four o'clock. The fire was first discovered by the watchman in Hamilton mill, about 3 o'clock. No one lodged in the building, and being nearly a mile distant by land, it was consumed before any one reached it. The owner had some insurance upon it. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

The annual communication of Washington Lodge, No. 5, A. F. and A. M. of Wickford was held at its hall, Thursday evening, Oct. 1, when the following brethren were elected officers for the year ensuing:

W. Master—George A. Spink. Senior Warden—James R. Wilson. Treasurer—Salmon M. Spink. Secretary—Albert F. Ellsworth. Senior Deacon—Benjamin F. Snow. Junior Deacon—James N. Hendrick. Senior Steward—C. Allen Chadsey. Junior Steward—Byron J. Sweet. Chaplain—Allen Reynolds. Marshal—John B. Pierce. Sentinel—William R. Slocum. Musical Director—James H. Hendrick. Tyler—Joseph E. Smith.

The above named brethren were duly installed on the same evening by R. W. Miller S. Greene, 1st, D. D. G. M., assisted by W. Samuel B. Church as Grand Marshal.

A special town meeting was held at Little Compton Wednesday, the 23d ult., to see if the town would recommend to the town council to lay out a road in the northern part of the town, which, it was claimed by those who favor the measure, would be of great benefit to the travelling public; while those who opposed it insist that the advantages thus secured would be in no way commensurate with the expense. After quite an animated discussion of the subject, the meeting adjourned to the 10th inst., to hear such propositions as might be offered concerning the road, and to take further action in the matter.

Fishing in the neighborhood of Seaconet rocks is excellent. That veteran fisherman, Mr. Valentine Simmons, a few days since, caught eight tautog that weighed in the aggregate forty six pounds, and lost his biggest fish at that.

Mrs. Alexander Brownell, of Little Compton, who suffered a severe injury by falling down stairs, some time since, has quite recovered, and is now about as usual.

Sheriff Burlingame has added another officer to the shrievality, by the appointment of Doctor A. W. Colvin, of Phenix to be deputy sheriff. It is generally understood that the appointment is made in the interest of the friends of the prohibitory law, and it is expected that an increased activity will be manifested in the enforcement of the law in certain quarters not yet molested by the officers.

About 3 o'clock Monday morning a three story wooden building in Apponaug, owned by Thomas W. Whitford, of Providence, was discovered to be on fire. The house was occupied by John Gardiner as fish market in the basement. The third story was occupied by a widow lady. Mr. Gardiner's family had just moved out of the second story, and the straw which came from under his carpets was used to kindle a fire, under both the front and back stairs, and both were burned. The fire was extinguished by a hand engine and extinguisher from the Oriental print works.

BRISTOL.—Between 5 and 6 o'clock, Monday morning, the Namquit mill took fire in the third story of the tower, and the flames spread with great rapidity. When the fire was discovered by a person on the street, it had already made considerable progress, and soon burst out through the windows and made its way to the floors above. An alarm was given, but it did not become very general, and when the fire department had reached the scene the inside of the tower and the roof were a mass of flame. The fire had also made its way into the attic of the main building where the spinning-room is and soon burst through the roof in several places. It seemed at this time that the mill was doomed to entire destruction, and that the firemen would be unable to check the progress of the flames, they had gained such a hold upon the building, but the firemen fought the flames persistently and vigorously, and finally succeeded in conquering them before they had spread further than the mule-rooms in the third and fourth stories, which were partially burnt out, the machinery being badly damaged. Ten streams were playing upon the fire when it was at its height, from the hydrants and engines, and the burning portion of the end of the building, to which the fire was confined was completely flooded, the damage by water being considerable. The loss is estimated at $20,000.

PORTSMOUTH.—For several years past, at about this time of year, St. Mary's church has held a "harvest feast." Heretofore it has occurred on a week day, and the attendance has always been very large. This year, on Sunday the 4th instant, the feast was held at the church. No clergyman was present except the rector of the church, the Rev. Hobart Williams, who read the service and delivered an appropriate discourse. The service was very largely attended, many persons being present from Newport. The church was very profusely and elegantly decorated with the fruits and flowers of the season.

At the Christian church, on Sunday, Bishop Ferotti, recently of the Greek church, preached afternoon and evening. On Sunday, the 11th instant, the pulpit is to be occupied by Rev. H. W. Conant.

WATCHEMOKET.—Watchemoket is one of the thriving suburbs of the city of Providence, and although its growth is of a very recent date it has been remarkably rapid, and never has its prosperity in this respect been greater than during the present season. Within this time a long piece of highway has been brought to grade, and more than five thousand feet of curbing laid. Within a few months also gas has been introduced, and the streets lighted. Recently also many buildings have been erected in spite of the general stagnation of business, and prominent among them is the spacious block of Thomas H. Ray. The structure is built in the most thorough manner, of brick, and is one hundred and twenty-six feet long by fifty in depth, and is three stories high, with a fine tower on the west end, in which will be placed during the present week one of E. Howard & Co.'s illuminated clocks, obtained by the liberality of our citizens. On the first floor there are six commodious apartments for stores of different kinds; the second floor will be used for offices, and on the third floor are two halls with ante-rooms for other purposes; the larger at the east end is a fine auditorium, with a seating capacity of eight hundred. On one side is a balcony, and on the opposite side is placed a stage with scenic arrangements. The hall at the west end is to be used for Masonic purposes.

An interesting ceremony took place in the Church of the Assumption, Providence, Father M. M. Clune, pastor, Sunday afternoon, namely, the blessing and baptizing of the new bell. The church was well filled with worshippers, including the Elmwood T. A. and B. Society, in regalia, and the band belonging to the society. There were present and taking part in the exercises, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Hendricken; the Very Rev. Father Albinus, of the Order of Passionists; Father Clune, pastor of the church; Father Delany, of Pawtucket; Father Kane, of Valley Falls; Father Flynn, of Cranston; Father McCoomb, of South Providence; Fathers Finnegan and Driscoll, of this city; Father Couch, of Phenix; Father Morgan, of North Attleboro; Father Byrne, of England, and Father Brady, of Greenville. The altar was resplendent with bouquets of flowers, looking out upon the audience from behind innumerable lighted candles. The services commenced with vespers, conducted by the Very Rev. Father Albinus. Miss Lizzie Lynch presided at the organ, after which the Rt. Rev. Bishop Hendricken gave a brief explanation of the ceremony about to be performed.

BRISTOL.—Thursday last being the day for the payment of taxes for the present year, with a reduction of five per cent. for prompt payment, quite a rush was made to the office of the collector through the day. The estimated amount of the valuable property for the present year is $5,715,800. On this amount a percentage of 78 cents on $100 was assessed, amounting to $14,591,04. Of this amount upward of forty-one thousand had been paid up to Friday morning, leaving a balance of thirty-two hundred to be paid this week.—The lecture committee of the Young Men's Christian Association have made arrangements for a course of literary and scientific lectures during the coming Winter. Dr. Isaac I. Hayes, the Arctic explorer, will open the course on Thursday evening, Oct. 29th. He will be followed by Edward Eggleston, Hon. Wm. Parsons, Louisa W. Foss, and other distinguished lecturers.—The building on the corner of Bradford and Thames Sts., erected for Mr. J. Howard Manchester, is fast approaching completion, the exterior being nearly covered. The building will contain stores on the lower floor and tenements above, and when completed will be quite an addition to the appearance of that part of the town. The workmen, while excavating for the foundations of this building, unearthed several relics of ye olden time, among others, a portion of a stone pestle in size and shape like those used by the Indians of former days in cracking their corn for samp, and a silver spoon of very ancient stamp, bearing the initials L. W., doubtless the wife of Colonel Wordwell, who occupied the former house for many years, which stood partially on the same site.—All the cotton mills in Woonsocket are running on short time, forty-four hours a week. They run nine hours a day for four days, and eight hours one day.

NORTH KINGSTOWN.—The "Anaquatucket Cotton mill," formerly known as the "Esbon Sanford mill," located in this town about two miles south of Wickford and half a mile northwest of the "Hamilton Mill," took fire about noon Monday and was entirely consumed, with all the machinery, stock and other contents. The band fire-engine from Wickford arrived too late to save the mill, but in time to prevent the fire from extending to any adjoining buildings, and probably saved them all from destruction. The mill was a small, wooden, two-story and half factory belonging to Syrin H. Vaughn, of this town, and operated by him in the manufacture of cotton warps and yarns. There was an insurance on the machinery and stock in the Queen's Office, London, for $4,000. The estimated loss and additional insurance on mill, if any, was not learned.

NEW YORK ITEMS.

The Herald pledges itself to pay one-fourth of the entire cost of a Polar expedition.

The schools in connection with the Church of the Holy Innocents were dedicated Sunday afternoon in the presence of about 8000 spectators with appropriate religious services.

It is reported that a large quantity of arms was recently shipped from New York to Porto Rico for ex President Baez, of San Domingo, and that a considerable number of men are to follow within a few days. The authority for this is somewhat questionable.

A number of Texan steers, which arrived at New York Sunday night, while passing through the lower part of the city, became infuriated at the noise and lights. Eight of them broke loose and rushed in various directions, and before they could be shot injured nearly fifty people, none of them, however, seriously.

The seamen's protective association held another meeting Saturday, at which resolutions were adopted to resist the exaction of blood-money from sailors by the combination of shipping masters, boarding-house keepers and ship captains. The names of several vessels were given as exacting such payments. The association will endeavor to obtain legislation at Albany this Winter.

An order was granted by Judge Donohue Saturday compelling the treasurer of the Central Branch of the Union Pacific Railroad to show cause why he will not produce the books previously ordered, and also why he should not be punished for contempt of court. The case of Elijah Myers vs. the Northern Pacific Railroad, Jay Cooke and W. B. Ogden, to foreclose a mortgage to secure bondholders and enjoin the issue of any more 7-30 bonds, was argued before Judge Blatchford Saturday. The object of the plaintiff is to remit the case back to the state court. Decision reserved.

The shooting at Creedmoor for the Bennett long range championship was concluded Saturday morning. Rigby, of the Irish team, won the first prize, he scoring 159; Fulton, of the American team, second, he scoring 158; and Milner, of the Irish team, third, he scoring 157. The contest between the Rigby and Sharp rifles was next decided and closed the contest. Each contestant was allowed twenty-five shots at 1000 yards range. The shooting occupied about one hour and a half, and at its close the Rigby rifle was ahead of Sharp by 113 points. Total score: Sharp team, which consisted of S. T. Collins, Gen. T. S. Dakin, Col. H. A. Gildersleeve and G. W. Yale, was 208. The Rigby team, Edmund Johnson, Dr. Hamilton and J. Wilson, scored 321. Yale, of the Sharp team, only fired fifteen shots when he retired from the contest. Of these he missed the target eleven times, and the best shooting was by Rigby and Johnson. After the shooting both teams returned to the city by a special train. In the evening the presentation of prizes occurred at the Arsenal. When Mr. Rigby, of the Irish team, received the Bennett prize, he answered in a few warm words, first for himself and then in the name of his fellow-friends of the Irish team, thanking the American people for the great hospitality with which they had been received in this country.

DR. BICKNELL'S SYRUP

Cures Bowel or Summer Complaints.

Being composed largely of Brandy, Spices and simple astringents, without a particle of Opiate, has proved after a 28 years' trial superior to any other article for Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Cholera-Morbus, Cholera-Infantum, Colic, Cramp, Sick or Sour Stomach, Sea-Sickness, Dyspepsia, &c., and may be implicitly relied upon in the most severe cases, yet so simple and pleasant that it may be given the most delicate Infant. It acts upon the system like water on a wilted plant.

Prepared only by Edward Sutton of Providence, R. I. Sold by all dealers in Medicines. jy3-3m-s&j

☞ The appointments of the nursery are incomplete without one bottle or more of the Milk of Magnesia, to be held in reserve in case of sudden attacks of colics and diarrhoeas among its infantile occupants. No other form of Magnesia is safe in such visitations. Caswell, Hazard & Co., Agents. sept28

A Dangerous Season.

Vegetation, during the summer, has been wonderfully thick and rank, and, as it decays, an unusual amount of sickness may be expected, unless proper means are taken to prevent it.

Fever and ague and bilious remittents already prevail to an alarming extent, and as the fall advances and the malarious night fogs become heavier, the sick list is likely to increase both in the city and in the country. It is, therefore, only an act of common prudence to keep the vital forces in full vigor, so that they may resist the unhealthy influences of the season. Reinforced by the tonic operation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the system, however weak and susceptible naturally, will in nine cases out of ten successfully combat every species of atmospheric poison by which epidemics are produced.

During the months of September, October and November the difference in temperature between day and night is very great, and the chilling dews and mists of the season are the prolific causes of indigestion, cholera-morbus, diarrhœa and dysentery.

Bearing this in mind, remember also that the Bitters not only invigorate the stomach and brace the nerves, but act specifically upon the bowels and the liver, imparting to those important organs regularity and tone. It is not reasonable to expect immunity from prevalent complaints if no precautions are taken to escape them.

Hostetter's Bitters are at once pleasant to the taste and the most certain of all safeguards against febrile ailments. It preserves health in the healthy, and renews it in the weak and ailing.

PIMPLES AND HUMORS ON THE FACE.—In this condition of the skin, the VEGETINE is the great remedy as it acts directly upon the cause. It cleanses and purifies the blood, thereby causing humors of all kinds to disappear.

The Bar-room Remedy for all ailments is Rum Bitters, surcharged with Fusil Oil, a deadly element, rendered more active by the pungent astringents with which it is combined. If your stomach is weak and liver or bowels disordered, strengthen & regulate them with VINEGAR BITTERS, a purely VEGETABLE ALTERATIVE and APERIENT, free from alcohol & capable of infusing new vitality into your exhausted system. sept15-4w

Protect Your Buildings.

Fire and water proof!—One coat of Glines' Slate Roofing Paint is equal to six of any other: it contains no tar will fill up all holes in shingle, tin, felt or iron roofs. Y. feb28-n&j

☞ The fatal diarrhoea, which carries off such numbers of the infant population of cities, every summer and autumn, has its origin in the excessive secretion of acid in the stomach, stimulated by extreme atmospheric heat. Milk of Magnesia is the only remedy capable of neutralizing it and removing its morbid results. Caswell, Hazard & Co., Agents. sept28

☞ To Mothers.—As the season is approaching in which the least exposure of infants to atmospheric changes induces obstinate and debilitating diarrhoeas, that the usual medicines are incapable of remedying, it behooves parents to be supplied with the Milk of Magnesia, which never fails to afford instant relief in such attacks. Caswell, Hazard & Co., agents. sep28

The Atlantic House Building.

THERE is enough good material in this building for half a dozen dwelling houses, or it can be used to great advantage in the erection of a hotel somewhere on the Ocean or Bay shore. The purchaser can obtain through the undersigned, at a very low price, a long lease of a splendid shore lot, with a bathing beach, upon which the hotel could be erected.

This is a fine opportunity for making money, as there is nothing more needed here than a hotel on the shore.

For further particulars, apply to T. G. FORD, Corner of Bellevue avenue and Catherine street.

Quarterly Bills.

During the first few days of October, all bills due the undersigned, will be presented for payment, as has been his custom for the past two years.

It gives him pleasure to note the very general acquiescence in the reasonableness of paying at a stated time and not leaving the accumulated bills of the whole year to be paid in the dull days of January, when money is scarce, and the cold pinches.

Newport Daily News.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1874.

GENERAL NEWS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Yellow Fever Cases at Pensacola.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.

Telegrams at the Navy Department this morning from Capt. Semmes, Pensacola Navy Yard, announce that Lieut. Commander Kellogg is still very sick, but hopes of his recovery are entertained. Paymaster McMahon is quite sick; Lieut. Commander Barclay is doing very well. Three sailors are seriously sick. One sailor was attacked Saturday. There are fifteen convalescents.

Gen. Sherman leaves this evening for St. Louis.

Receipts of internal revenue today, were $566,563.

The Freedmen's Bank.

The commissioners to settle the affairs of the Freedmen's Saving and Trust Company, wrote to a correspondent that it is impossible yet to say when the first dividend will be paid. They have now only $45,000 in the treasury, and $60,000 are required as a basis of a dividend of 20 per cent. In the present condition of the money market, and on account of the high rate of taxation in the District of Columbia, the collections are slow and very small, so it will take some time to raise sufficient funds to make such a dividend.

The Work of the Redemption Agency.

The redemption agency has made calls upon the national banks since the suspension of redemptions for about $7,000,000 in legal tender notes, to reimburse the treasurer for their circulating notes redeemed and assorted. Calls of the same nature for about $5,000,000 more will probably be made during the present week. When the banks have responded to the calls, the agency then will be in a condition to resume redemptions.

The force at the agency is now sufficient to count and assort the bank notes as fast as received, so there is not any likelihood of another suspension of redemptions. Hereafter calls will be made upon the banks for reimbursement as fast as their notes are assorted, so that the calls for any period will be about equal to the redemptions. The five per cent. deposit leaves so small a margin for the agency to work upon that calls must be made with great frequency to prevent the exhaustion of the funds.

Reports from Indian Agent Miles.

Indian Agent Miles writes to Commissioner Smith, from Cheyenne and Arapahoe agency, Indian Territory, September 26, as follows: Yesterday noon we received information through Indian channels that the Cheyennes had forced Gen. Miles to retreat to the vicinity of Antelope hills, and that, encouraged by their success, they had started out war parties, one of which had met Gen. Davidson somewhere up the Washita, and they had lost three of their killed, and that another party of about twenty-five were camped yesterday morning thirty miles west of this agency, on their way to the road between here and Caldwell. I at once sent out a courier along the line of the road to warn teamsters, &c., of the apprehended danger. He was followed by Capt. Cramer with a full company of cavalry. My wife and three little ones are now between here and Caldwell, detained by high waters. They have an escort of ten soldiers, which would be sufficient under ordinary circumstances. Look out for news from the border of Kansas. The Cheyennes, exasperated by their losses and encouraged by their successes will fight like demons, and will scour the whole country. All available means should be used to protect and punish.

The Health of the Gulf Coast.

The port of Pascagoula, Mississippi, which has been rigidly quarantined against for some time, is now entirely free from yellow fever. The health of the gulf coast has rarely been better than during the past season, Pensacola being the only point at which yellow jack has obtained a foothold. Key West notwithstanding it was threatened with a visitation by the outbreak on the Ticonderoga, has entirely escaped, and the same may be said of all ports with the exception noted, from Florida to the Rio Grande.

Patent of the Henry Rifle Extended.

The commissioner of patents today extended the patent of Tyler Henry, of New Haven, Ct., for the Henry rifle.

A Large "O. B." Mail.

Over 10,000 letters relating to official business were received in yesterday's and today's mail at the Post Office Department.

The Postmaster-General and Office-Seekers.

Postmaster-General Jewell begs for mercy in the matter of applications for appointment of special agents of the Post Office Department. There are now more special agents in the service than are needed. Gov. Jewell is daily in receipt of letters and telegrams from Senators and Representatives commending the tone and purpose of his recent letter in regard to postmasters' carelessness in certifying to the responsibility of irresponsible mail bidders.

FROM NEW YORK.

Terrific Earthquake in Guatemala. Thirty Two Lives Lost.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.

Panama papers of the 26th ult., contain the following: Everything is quiet on the Isthmus. C. F. Arosemena has been chosen president of the Panama legislature.

Advices from Guatemala confirm the reported earthquake on the 3d of September. The oscillations at Antigua were very violent from west to east, added to a vertical motion.

The people fled from the houses to the court-yards, and the air was filled with the screams of affrighted women. None could keep their balance without great difficulty. Houses and walls fell, and there were many shocks during the night.

Thirty-two lives were lost, and many houses will have to be taken down. At Guatemala, the capitol, the shocks were only slightly felt, but the Indians report that three villages at the foot of the volcano del Fuego were destroyed.

The people are mostly living out of houses at Antigua and Guatemala, fearing a repetition of the earthquake. There is nothing new from the other points.

New Orleans Matters.

A New Orleans dispatch to the Times says the recent compromise contains a provision allowing the Republicans twenty days to carry out the terms of the agreement, and if during that time, they do not in good faith recognise the Kellogg government, keep the peace toward the negroes and cease from acts of intimidation, the Republicans will be absolved from making the appointments agreed upon. The same dispatch says Kellogg is informed that upon the arrival of the federal troops at Coushatta, some fifteen White Leaguers who were engaged in the recent murders, have fled to Arkansas and Texas.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Fire Department Convention at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5.

The convention of chiefs of fire departments of various cities meets here, today. About fifty delegates are here, and seventy-five more are expected. Two hundred representatives of insurance companies are present, as specially interested spectators. A large amount of fire apparatus of all description, will be on exhibition at the fair Thursday. The convention in a body will inspect it, and put it to practical test.

Turkey.

VIENNA, Oct. 5.

The Neue Freie Presse published today the following special despatch from Constantinople:—

Partly through the good offices of the English minister, the Sultan has become reconciled to his nephew Mahommed Murad Effendi, the legal heir to the Turkish throne. The Sultan has sworn to respect that right, and M. Murad Effendi has promised that the sons of the Sultan shall retain their rank and places. The dowager Sultana vainly opposed this arrangement. The Sultan is ill and requires complete rest.

A Ten Mile Trot at Beacon Park.

BOSTON, Oct. 5.

The horse Ingomar, matched against time for $1,500, endeavored to beat the best ten miles trotting time ever made, viz.: 28,02½, today, at Beacon Park. The attempt was a failure, the distance being made in 29,19½.

The American Board.

RUTLAND, VT., Oct. 5.

The annual session of the A. B. C. F. M. will open here tomorrow afternoon, when the treasurer's exhibit, the report of the home department and the general survey will be presented. The meetings continue four days. The most important subject to be considered is the financial problem of the board, on which the Rev. Dr. Treat will read a paper Wednesday morning. Over two thousand persons are to attend the gathering here.

The Argentine Republic.

RIO JANEIRO, Oct. 4.

The situation of affairs in Buenos Ayres is desperate. The government is taking vigorous measures to suppress the insurrection. All the government offices and houses are closed. The government has issued an order extending the time on all commercial credits. One regiment of national troops has revolted to the insurgents. Foreigners are hastening to the consulate to get passports to protect them against the universal conscription which is to be enforced.

FIRES IN NEW ENGLAND.—According to the Journal record of fires during the month of September, 1874, the loss by fire in New England amounts to $1,074,700. Our estimates are made with as much care as possible, but are mainly based upon the reports given by newspapers. In most instances we have corrected these when over stated:

Connecticut	$514,800
Massachusetts	410,200
New Hampshire	93,200
Vermont	28,000
Rhode Island	18,000
Maine	10,500
Total	$1,074,700

—[Boston Journal.

Edwin Booth publishes a card, in which he says: "I am glad to feel that the public does not blame me because of fate, which seems to have overwhelmed me. I am grateful to all my creditors, too. If I sink it will be in legitimate public enterprise. But for the theatre I should have been rich. I hope to fight through as soon as my health will permit."

People are quite apt to go where their attention is called, and if they find things as represented, will purchase there in preference to spending their time in seeking elsewhere.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1874.

THE TITLE OF "REVEREND."

An interesting contribution to the history of the title of "Reverend" as applied to clergyman is made by the Rev. Brooke Lambert in a letter to the London Times. Mr. Lambert says:

"The registers of the parish of Tamworth contain some interesting particulars as to local usage. These registers date back from the reign of Philip and Mary, 1556. The first title given in them to a clergyman is the old title 'Sir,' with which Shakespeare has made us familiar. In May, 1567, we have an entry 'Sir Peter Stringer, course.' The clergyman who succeeded him is called "Sir Richard Walker,' but there are other contemporaneous entries, such as 'sacerdos,' 'clericus,' 'preacher' and 'verbi minister.' These latter seem to have obtained till, in King James's reign, we have the prefix 'master,' which, as we know, was applied to the great divine, Master Hooker, and this practice seems by our registers to have been continued through the commonwealth, though "Minister of the Gospel" is sometimes added. We have, however, in 1657 the first use of the word 'reverend,' evidently in this case as a special mark of respect, not as a formal title. On '11 June, 1657, was buried our Reverend Pastor Master Thomas Blake, minister of Tamworth.' In 1693 we have a clergyman by name Samuel Collins. I had noticed with curiosity an erasure before his name in each of the casualties, baptismal or funeral, recorded in our register. At last, in 1701, I was lucky enough to find an unerased entry, and it appears that the obnoxious word was the title 'Revd.' (so written) prefixed to his Mr. However, he seems not to have been able to hold to this title. One of his children, baptized in 1706 is baptized as the child of plain Samuel Collins, minister; and when he died in 1706, he was buried without the title 'reverend'—as Mr. (i. e. Master Samuel Collins, minister of Tamworth. Henceforward the same address is used till November 1727, when we have the baptism of Anne, daughter of 'ye Rev. Mr. Robert Wilson, minister of Tamworth,' and after that date the prefix 'reverend' never seems to have been omitted. I am thankful, for the honor of my parish, to say that it was not withheld even in a case which reminds one of the matter discussed at the Camborne conference. It fell to the lot of one of my predecessors to bury a nonconformist. The entry of the burial is as follows, 1733—37, '10 March, buried ye Rev. Thomas Worthington, a non-jurer, of Tamworth.' In this he only followed the example of an earlier vicar, who, when 'Thomas Flavell, Presbyterian teacher of Tamworth,' died, allowed him the prefix of Mr. (Master) —a prefix used with great parsimony in those days."

EDUCATION IN GERMANY.—A German correspondent advises Americans to avoid Berlin, and has a few words to say to parents who think of sending their children there alone to finish their education. He says: this is much oftener done than it would be if the exposure to temptation were better appreciated. The whole moral tone is much lower here than in America, and to take boys or girls in "the teens," with unformed characters and principles, and place them here, away from home influence and restraint, with the intoxication of novelty on every hand, is in many cases destruction. No knowledge of the modern languages can compensate for what is lost in the acquirement. If one of the parents or some older person cannot come with the children, then do not send them. There is one American woman here who not only come to stay here with her children, but has chosen to learn the languages by going to school with them herself. Those children will be well watched over."

No. 76 State St., opp. Kilby St., Boston,

AFTER AN EXTENSIVE PRACTICE of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms, with despatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of Inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.

No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." The Fall Campaign

NOW OPEN, AT

3 & 4 Cottrell Block.

I have my COOK STOVES and RANGES now ready for inspection, and feel confident that I have, not only the BEST assortment, but taken as a whole, the BEST QUALITY, of COOK STOVES and RANGES, ever offered in Newport.

I have a few very FIRST CLASS

MAGEE'S NEW PORTABLE RANGES,

which for BEAUTY and ECONOMY

CAN'T BE BEAT.

ALSO THE

"DOMESTIC RANGE,"

I have sold ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY of these Ranges in Newport, and every one gives perfect satisfaction.

I still keep an assortment of the favorite new Progress.

As this Stove is so widely known, it is unnecessary to say anything of it in this connection.

I would call the attention of those who want a CHEAP Cook Stove, to my new Cook Stove, "THE MENTOR." This Stove is just out; it is a Handsome, Durable and Good Working Stove, and we are just about giving them away.

I would also call attention of Contractors, and all others, to "Magee's New Standard Plate Iron, Hot Air Furnace," for heating stores, dwellings, or any Public Buildings. Such a reputation has this Furnace attained, that there are already several spurious imitations in market. Don't buy them, as it will be money thrown away. Have none but Magee's. A few second-hand cook stoves for sale cheap.

Advice to Bird Owners.

VERMIN.

A GREAT trouble to birds in confinement, are insects, (small lice, of a reddish color), which often cause the death of a bird, though persons do not know what is the matter with them. They are generally produced by uncleanliness, and will, particularly in a wooden cage, increase very fast. The symptoms are, that when the bird during the day is observed to be often picking itself, and the wing and shoulders becoming bald, the crevices and joinings of their cage becoming dirty outside. The insects hide themselves during the day, in these crevices &c., creep out at night, crawl up to the birds and torment them most unmercifully. They will suck the blood out of them and prevent the poor things from resting all night. The bird thus tormented, will appear dull and heavy during the day; ceases singing, and if relief be not given them, it very often causes their death.

The above malady may be remedied by procuring a package of the GERMAN INSECT DESTROYING POWDER.
